Receives Job Corps Training

Charlie C. Gilbert, pictured above, is receiving building maintenance and carpentry training at the Job Corps Center in Cottonwood, Idaho, through the assistance of the Virginia Employment Commission, Lynchburg office. Charlie is the son of Martha C. Gilbert of Route one, Concord.

According to Paul T. McNutt, Center Director, Charlie (who only completed the fourth grade in school) is progressing satisfactorily. Because of his favorable progress, he has received a Specialist pay raise.

Charlie Gilbert is not only receiving the training in building maintenance and carpentry but is also being taught by professional educators by participating in the General Educational Program which offers to him not only the training mentioned above but also reading, mathematics, language and study skills.

Anyone interested in Job Corps Training information may contact Mr. Richard E. Hughes, P. O. Box 2117, Virginia Employment Commission, Lynchburg.

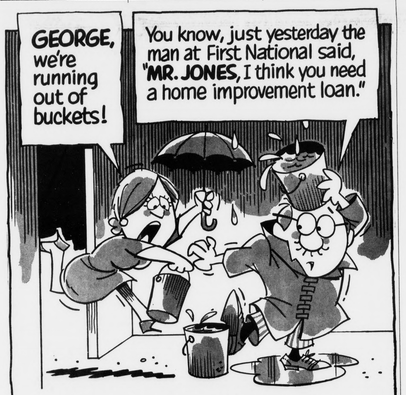
AMERICA'S FASTEST GROWING DRUG CHAIN



GEORGE, we're running out of buckets!
You know, just yesterday the man at First National said, "MR. JONES, I think you need a home improvement loan."

Your home is a valuable possession. It pays to keep it up, improve it, enjoy it!

Maybe you don't need a new roof, but how about some of these other improvement ideas? Re-model the kitchen, add an extra room, maybe an extra bath, finish the basement, new heating or air-conditioning, patio, garage, landscaping, new carpeting and drapes? No need to wait. We can help you get started right now with a First National home improvement loan. Takes only a few minutes to arrange.

Modernistic Club News Bulletin

The very nice group of Sunday School members, turned out to the Sunday School, at Galilee Christ Church Sunday. At 11 a.m. Rev. Lawing gave a very helpful information on the subject, "One Body in Christ", I Corinthians 12:12-27 Memory verse: "Now ye are the body of Christ and individually members of it."

The offering for the morning was very good.

The regular Psalm Sunday service was held at First Baptist Church, with Rev. Murray in charge of services, on last Sunday. A very nice audience was out to the service.

Beautiful music was rendered by the church choirs. Quite a number of visitors were present for the morning worship. Immediately after the morning service "Holy Communion" was served by pastor Murray, to members and friends.

At 3:00 p.m. the pastor and choir were invited to worship at the new Life Baptist Church in Bedford, Va., of which the Rev. John Beamon is pastor. The Rev. Mr. Beamon was a former pastor of First Baptist Church, in Appomattox, Va.

Mr. and Mrs. Julian Hamlet stopped to visit with Mr. and Mrs. Vassette Harris after services in Bedford, Va. They gave an account of having a very nice day on last Sunday, both in church services and visiting friends of long standing.

We sympathize deeply with Mrs. Dianne Scruggs in the loss of her dear mother, Mrs. Annie C. Tibbs. Most of us here have gone through similar experiences, and know how you feel. God loves you just how much one can bear, and He will take care of you always.

News has come to us that Mr. Theodore Robinson, of Bronx, N. Y. fell and broke his hip last week. He slipped on his kitchen floor. He is resting easy in a hospital at this time. We are hoping for him a speedy recovery. Theodore is the brother of Mrs. T. Lucille Martin.

We extend deep sympathy to Mrs. H. Foster in the home going of her dear uncle.

In and out of town the week end: Mesdames Dianne Scruggs, Lucy Tibbs and Modessa Jordan attended the funeral sevice of the late Mrs. Annie C. Tibbs, in Brooklyn, N.Y. Mrs. Scruggs is the mother, Mrs. Lucy Tibbs, the daughter-in-law and Mrs. Modessa Jordan, the sister-in-law of the late Mrs. Tibbs. En route home Mesdames Lucy Tibbs and Modessa Jordan visited relatives in Philadelphia, Penna.

Mr. and Mrs. Leon Tuner, and children, from Philadelphia, Penna., visited relatives and friends in Spout Spring, Va., and Appomattox, Va. Mr. Clinton Turner from South Boston, visited his parents also, in Spout Spring, Va.

See you next week!
